CROFTON SENSATION.

Miss Dora Cavanaugh Hunts a Lover With a Pistol.

Fails to Find Him And the Affair Gets Into Print.

The little town of Crofton has had a social sensation for several days, in which Miss Nora Cavanaugh has taken the leading part. The following special from Dayton, Ohio, Saturday, gave the main facts:

"The authorities have taken into custody Miss Nora Cavanaugh, of Crofton, Ky., who came here in search of a recreant lover. She appealed to the police for aid, saying she would be willing to work to secure money with which to reach home, the search having failed in the location of her sweetheart, who was supposed to have gone to Pleasant Hill, Ohio. Upon her return to Dayton it appeared that the girl was losing her mind, and the Infirmary Department took charge of her. When searched at the station house a revolver was found in one of her stockings, and a nominal charge of carrying concealed weapons was placed against her, but will not be pressed. Her relatives were notified and may care for her."

Miss Cavanaugh's brother came to this city Saturday and wired his sister the money to return home, and she arrived here Sunday and returned yesterday to her father's home in Hopkins county.

Miss Cavanaugh had lived in Crofton for about a year, making her home recently with Timothy Brown's family.

A young employee of the Empire Coal Co. has been paying attention to her for several months and recently the young man left Empire and it was to search for him that the girl went to his former home in Ohio. She failed to find him.

TYPHOID FEVER

Causes Death of Mr. Wortham, After Brief Illness.

Mr. Finis Wortham, a well known cigar maker, died at his home on West Fourth street Sunday evening, after an illness of three weeks, of typhoid fever.

He was 25 years old and is survived by a widow and one child, a daughter about four years old.

Deceased was reared near Sinking Fork, but had been living in the city about five years. He was a member of the Baptist church. Funeral services were held at his late home yesterday afternoon and the interment took place in the Brick church cemetery, near Sinking Fork.

ASSIGNMENTS MADE.

Only Two Christian County Men Get August Work.

The following assignments of Christian county Government employes was made by Collector Franks at Owensboro last week: Guager—J. W. Morgan, Glenmore distillery, No. 24. Store keeper—Guager—John W. Postell, general and special B. W. H. As this is the dull season among the storekeepers and guagers, on account of the majority of the distilleries closing down during "dog days," there were only about 40 assignments made for operation during the month of August. This leaves about 30 unassigned men, who will have to wait for fall jobs.

Lost Little Son.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. M. H. McGrew, died last Thursday evening at the home of its parents on Fourth street. The interment took place in Hopewell cemetery Friday.

ON THE HUSTLE

Is The Queen City of the Pen-syryle.

Owensboro Will Demonstrate What She Can Do With a Big Attraction at the State Fair.

The enterprising business men of Owensboro have carried their plans far enough along to make it clear that the State Fair during the week of September 21st is going to be a greater success even than was experienced last year in Louisville.

They are already showing that when Owensboro bids for a big attraction, success is assured the enterprise, it matters not what the nature of it may be.

This, at least, is the opinion of the directors of the State Fair, who found a far-seeing, determined set of business men at Owensboro ready to take hold of every suggestion and carry it to a successful conclusion.

The following local committee have been placed in charge there:

ADVISORY COMMITTEE.

Dr. J. G. Hickman, C. W. Bransford, Lee Ray.

ENTERTAINMENT COMMITTEE.

W. C. Archer, J. W. McCulloch, L. S. Frederick.

During August about 25,000 handsome State Fair posters will be hung, most of them of course in Western Kentucky counties.

Secretary L. B. Shropshire, at the headquarters in the Board of Trade Building, Louisville, is daily receiving scores of letters from the biggest live stock men in this State and in the United States announcing their intention to compete for the $20,000 cash prizes that will be distributed. Several new, big amusement attractions will be announced in a week or two.

COMMISSIONER'S SALES

Of Town Lots and Farms in Christian.

Master Commissioner Frank Rives sold the following property yesterday:

Forty-two acres land on Sinking Fork to Mrs. M. L. Zimmer, $201. House and lot near Elmo, to J. C. Jenkins, $745.

Two lots in Lafayette suburbs, one of five acres and the other four, both to Bettie W. Fuqua, $165 and $167.50 respectively.

Sixty-three and one-fourth acres near Bennetts town, to C. J. Robertson, $796.

House and lot in Pembroke, to Wade & Hobdy, $150.

House on lot No. 13 in old Fair Ground addition, to Charlie Long, $148.

Two hundred and fifty-six acres on Sand Lick Creek, North Christian, to H. E. Wade, $500.

AWAY 25 YEARS.

Texas Resident Visiting Friends After Long Absence.

Mr. S. A. Wingo, who for the past twenty-five years has been engaged in business in Texas, is visiting the family of Mr. J. C. Weddington, near Laytonville. If time will permit, Mr. Wingo contemplates visiting other relatives in Christian county before going to West Virginia, his former home, for a visit to old friends and relatives in that State.

To Mammoth Cave.

Mr. Wm Bryan, of Russellville, the L. & N. excursion manager, will take an excursion from this county to Mammoth Cave, August 21, for $6.80 for the round trip, cave fee and hotel charge for one day.

Mrs. McGehee Better.

Mrs. H. C. McGehee, of Gracey, who has been very ill for two weeks, is somewhat improved. She was threatened with appendicitis.

NO POPE YET.

Fruitless Ballots Taken Saturday and Sunday.

Burning Ballots Tell Outside Crowds That No Election Has Been Had.

Rome, August 3.—The conclave of cardinals took two more fruitless ballots yesterday. It is said that if Oreglia, Rampolla and Serafino Vannutelli drop out of the race, a "dark horse" is a possibility. In this connection, Cardinal Gibbons is mentioned. Efforts have been made by outsiders to communicate with some of the cardinals and suspicious signals have been seen in the cells of several.

From the smoke which issued from burning ballots in the little chimney on the Sistine Chapel tonight a vast multitude gathered around St. Peter's learned that the second day of the conclave had been fruitless. The conclusion is drawn that the strength of the leading candidates remains unbroken and that no compromise candidate has yet appeared. And there is no indication of how long this condition of affairs will continue. The prolongation of the contest has aroused tremendous public interest, if, indeed, it cannot be called excitement. Every trace of that apathy which followed the death of the late Pope has vanished and instead there now exists a burning interest in everything pertaining to the election of his successor.

HEAVILY FINED

For Using Obscene Language and General Disorderly Conduct.

Bill Wallace, col., is in the clutches of the law again. This time he was fined $100 and given, in addition, 50 days in the workhouse on a charge of breach of the peace. Wallace appeared at the house of Fred Ellis about one o'clock Sunday morning and used very abusive and obscene language. He was very disorderly and remained on the premises about three hours. Mr. Ellis was unarmed and therefore powerless. Mattie Wallace, Bill's wife, became indignant at her husband's arrest and she too was taken into custody. A fine of $10 and costs was assessed against her and she was also sent to the workhouse.

Mr. Short Improving.

The condition of Mr. A. B. Short, of Paducah, formerly of this city, who has been very sick for six weeks, is somewhat improved. Mr. Short is afflicted with rheumatism, but is now able to put his feet to the floor.

QUITS THE RACE.

Senator N. W. Utley Will Not Stand For Re-Election.

Publishes a Card Withdrawing in Which he Rasps His Foes and Some Others Also

Eddyville, Ky., July 30.—State Senator N. W. Utley, the member from this district, is out in a card in this week's issue of the Tale of Two Cities in which he withdraws from the race. His card is a very salty one, as he scores a number of local politicians, an editor of a local paper, and pays his respects to Jack Chinn, Gov. Beckham, and district and state machines. In closing his card Senator Utley says: "The scheme is to disorganize the democratic party, and then control it. I speak deliberately. The thing is run by disorganizers. Every man of them has a bolting record. Abe Thompson's conduct as a bolter is notorious. John Keys is a past master at the art of fighting democrats. Sinking Fund Smith turned a white feather in '99 in the face of the enemy, and after the election cast reproach upon the martyred Goebel and the contest boards."

"They are running a lot of bolters. Mr. Grassham was under the leg cabin in '97, while Mr. Grasty, whom the ring are pledged to nominate, once distinguished himself by bolting the nominee, who had beaten him, and running for county clerk against him. I write this not merely to find fault, but to put the people on guard."

"Mr. J. W. Gilbert, the Calloway candidate, is a good democrat. But the ring expects to throw him overboard, and nominate a bolter, a man of their own ilk. So I should say let the people rally to Mr. Gilbert. Let at least a democrat be nominated. Rebuke the corrupt machine that far, and let the banner be in the hand of a man who has never made war upon it."

FINE PEARLS.

Mr. Wadlington Finds Three in Little River.

Mr. Richard Wadlington recently found three pearls in Little River, at a point just below Pee Dee. One of them is extra fine and is prized very highly. It is pink in color, large and barrel shaped, with ridges representing barrel hoops. Mr. Wadlington has refused $65 for this gem. He values it at $100. It is the only pearl of the kind found in that stream for years, it is claimed.

The finder of the pearls sold one the size of a turkey shot for $20. The third gem is a little larger than this one and is valued at $25.
